

It's often the "crunch" that catches people out – and that's the way some food companies like it. Consumers have been carefully trained over the last few decades to reach for those almost addictive crunchy snacks, and most of them are loaded with simple carbs and way too many calories. Blood sugar spikes and weight gain inevitably follows. So it's Silhouette Staples to the rescue. Chili-Lime Puffs have 15 grams of protein, 3 grams of sugars and 120 calories, so not only are they tasty and crunchy, they're also perfectly balanced for weight loss, not weight gain. Why risk the consequences of poorly designed snacks, when you can get Carefully Calibrated Foods through the Silhouette Solution?

If it's not Carefully Calibrated, it's not your silhouette solution™
